Cayman National Shareholders Vote at Further Extraordinary General Meeting

George Town, Cayman Islands: This notice is provided solely to correct a typographical error in the text of the Special Resolution set forth in the 8 November 2018 notice provided to the Exchange. The correct version of the notice appears below:

Cayman National Corporation Ltd. (CSX:CNC-KY) (“Cayman National” or the “Company”) advises that shareholders of Cayman National met on 7 November 2018 and voted to approve as a Special Resolution of the Company (by a significant margin) the following resolution:

THAT the Articles of Association be amended by deleting Article 23, subject to any approval required by the Government of the Cayman Islands (Governor in Cabinet).

The text of Article 23 was as follows:

23. The directors shall decline to register any transfer of shares which in their opinion would result in any person or legal entity or closely related group of persons or legal entities acquiring or being able to acquire or to be vested with as a result of such issue legal or beneficial ownership of or voting control over more than 10% of the total issued shareholding of the Company.

The approval required by the Government of the Cayman Islands has not yet been obtained.

The deletion of Article 23 is a separate condition to the Partial Offer made to CNC shareholders by Republic Bank Trinidad and Tobago (Barbados) Limited (“Republic”). Shareholders who wish to accept Republic’s Partial Offer must still tender their shares by completing the Form of Acceptance provided to all shareholders, and which is available also at cncshares.ky. Shareholders who do not wish to accept Republic’s Partial Offer need not take any action.
